

LEADERSHIP PROFILE

Eugene Park is a Client Service Supervisor at Oxford Financial Group, Ltd. In this capacity, he oversees Oxford's team of Relationship Managers and Client Service Associates, providing oversight and expertise to ensure the seamless coordination and implementation of the financial needs and goals of Oxford's clients.

Eugene joined Oxford in 2003. Prior to his current role as Client Service Supervisor, his most recent promotion was to Relationship

EUGENE K. PARK CLIENT SERVICE SUPERVISOR

"I work with my team to ensure every client's needs are met and that they are in a position to reach all of their goals with the highest level of success."

Manager from Savile Row/Mayfair Project Manager in October 2014.

Eugene was previously employed as a registered representative with Charles Schwab, where his primary responsibilities involved trading securities while providing a high level of customer service for a dedicated group of active traders.

Eugene received his Bachelor's degree in Communication with a minor in Economics from The Ohio State University.