

LEADERSHIP PROFILE

Leeanna Kirkwood is a Senior Fiduciary Officer with The Trust Company of Oxford™ (TCO). In this role, Leeanna manages trust accounts, overseeing the legal aspects around trusts while working with clients and Managing Directors to ensure the financial goals within the framework of the client's trust document are met.

Prior to joining Oxford, Leeanna served as Vice President and Senior Fiduciary Relationship Specialist at Wells Fargo Bank where she worked with clients across the country to coordinate all aspects of their estate plan to ensure wills, trusts and other planning documents achieved the client's goals. Prior to that, she was an

LEEANNA K. KIRKWOOD, JD SENIOR FIDUCIARY OFFICER

"Listening, respecting and understanding the individual and unique needs of each of my clients is vital to their success and is a shared mission at Oxford."

attorney in a private practice with a focus on estate administration and litigation.

Leeanna graduated from Purdue University with a Bachelor of Arts in Public Relations and Mass Communications. She went on to complete her JD at Valparaiso University School of Law.

Leeanna is actively involved with Habitat for Humanity and the Community Harvest Food Bank of Northeast Indiana, Inc. She served on the Northeast Indiana YWCA Board from 2011-2018.

Leeanna has two daughters, two granddaughters and a cat. She lives on a lake and spends her spare time in the summers on her boat or on the golf course.

The Juris Doctor (JD) is a graduate degree in the study of law. OFG-2103-3
